Terms and Conditions of Ministry

The following terms and conditions of Ministry are offered by way of seeking best practise in the relationship between Minister and Church. At the heart of the relationship is that of trust – this cannot be overemphasised, such principals as below are merely offered in order to safeguard this from both sides. To all and through all of what follows we seek as Church and Minister to be partners in serving Christ in the world today.

- 1 Your period of Ministry with us began on the [__] of [_____] 201 which is the date of commencement of your continuous employment.
- 2 In accepting your appointment it shall be deemed that you have accepted all the terms and conditions set out in these Terms and Conditions of Ministry.
- 3 These Particulars of Ministry annul any previous agreement whether verbal or written given to you at any time.
- 4 You are employed as Minister of Religion. You will be responsible to The Church Meeting of _____ Congregational Church which will be facilitated through its Deacons and primarily it's Church Secretary, to whom you are immediately accountable. Upon appointment your range of duties and areas of responsibility will initially be jointly agreed between yourself and the Deacons. This will include duties and support offered in your own church context, ecumenical engagement and service to the wider Federation (ratified by Church Meeting) and reviewed annually thereafter.
5. To assist your ongoing personal development you are encouraged to avail yourself of training opportunities as they arise both within the Federation and beyond. Work time and out of pocket expenses will be allowed for annual CF Ministers Conference, with consideration given to others upon request.
6. An annual review of your ministry will take place with a group of three as appointed by the Deacons. This is to be seen as a very positive expression for all concerned to enable performance appraisal, opportunity to review agreed expectations, and to forward plan accordingly. The Congregational Federation offers various avenues for confidential pastoral support and reference. These can be accessed in the first instance through contacting their General Secretary at their offices in Nottingham.
- 7 You will be paid monthly by credit transfer to your bank account in arrears at the rate of £_____ per month. The stipend shall be reviewed annually on the 1st January. Any alternative arrangements for reviewing your stipend shall be at the Church's discretion.

- 8 You will work such hours as are needed for the proper performance of your duties including, where necessary, Saturdays, Sundays (naturally) and Bank Holidays. As part of the Federation guidelines to take a minimum of one day off per week, it is expected that (barring any emergency) you will allocate one of the Monday to Friday days as a 'Day Off' each week from all Ministry duties. The nature of a minister's calling will require that you work on certain statutory holidays (e.g. Christmas, Good Friday etc.) and where this happens, you are encouraged to take time off in lieu.

It is also necessary to be mindful of the hours worked in any one day, particularly in allowing for evening meetings.

The parties each agree that the nature of the Minister's position is such that his/her working time cannot be measured and, accordingly, that the Minister's employment falls within the scope of Regulation 20 of the Working Time Regulations 1998.

9. The first 3 months of the Employment will be a probationary period. During this period your performance and conduct will be monitored. During the probationary period you will not be subject to the Church's disciplinary procedures. At the end of the probationary period your performance will be reviewed and if found satisfactory your appointment will be confirmed.
