

RISK ASSESSMENT – PREGNANT EMPLOYEES

A review of the working arrangements of the employee should be carried out by the Manager in conjunction with the employee. Major issues or long term hazards should be referred to the Health & Safety Officer.

Employee Name:.....Job Title.....

General Hazard	Specific hazard identified in the role	Potential/possible Risk (specify if applicable)	Agreed Action (where potential risk identified)
Physical	Awkward spaces/workstation
	Seating/posture
	High level of Noise
	Exposure to any radiation
	Heavy lifting required
Chemical	Handling of any liquid substances
Working Conditions	Rest facilities needed
	Excessive working hours
	Unusually stressful work
	High/low temperature in workplace
	Lone working
	Working at heights (step ladders etc)
	Travelling (flying/driving)
	Exposure to violence
	Slippery floors

'I agree to this information being retained for employment purposes under the General Data Protection Regulations 2018'

Employee.....signed. Date

Manager.....signed Date