

BUILDING LIFE FLOURISHING COMMUNITIES

A SERIES OF WEBINARS WITH CWM EUROPE

REVD. ALEX CLARE-YOUNG

TRANSGENDER. CHRISTIAN. HUMAN.

MONDAY 23RD NOVEMBER (14:00-15:30)

In this webinar, Revd. Alex Clare-Young will explore trans and non-binary gender identities and implications for missions and ministry. This exploration relates to their doctoral work which has the working title 'Trans-Formations: A grounded theology, rooted in the identities, experiences and understandings of trans and non-binary Christians.'

VICTORIA TURNER

YOUTH:
OBJECT OF, OR PARTNERS IN MISSION
AND ECUMENISM

MONDAY 30TH NOVEMBER (14:00-15:30)

Using her research with the Iona Community, Victoria's presentation will outline the divide between youth enthusiasm and institutional restrictions to involving young people in mission and ecumenism, exploring how the theology of young people has changed.

DR. CHRIS SHANNAHAN

'LIFE ON THE BREADLINE:
CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP AND
THE VIOLENCE OF POVERTY'

MONDAY 7TH DECEMBER (14:00-15:30)

Drawing on original case studies focusing on food poverty, low pay, poor housing, lateral violence and asset-based community development, taken from the ongoing 'Life on the Breadline' project, this presentation will expose strengths and weaknesses of contemporary Christian responses to resurgent poverty

REVD. TESSA HENRY-ROBINSON

CLAIMING
SPACE - TO STAY AND FIGHT OR TO
TAKE FLIGHT? - THAT IS THE QUESTION

MONDAY 14TH DECEMBER (14:00-15:30)

The backdrop of Tessa's presentation is the ongoing turbulence around the world in which people including BLM, have come together to signal overturning long-held discriminatory and racist practices and abuses.

