Getting your kids through the church- Over busyness

Wednesday 28th Feb @7pm

When we are pursued by constant busyness, there is no end to the things we feel must be done. Most of us are juggling so many balls - church, work, family, leisure and relationships. Is it really possible to 'have it all, and have it all now' or are there choices that we need to make about what we do and don't do?

Will I stay?

I have had a few meetings with people here and partners in the agreement for me to be here. It seem the decision rest with me as the Prebyterian Church in Grenada would be happy for me to stay for a longer period. There could be benefit as relationships have been built, but to date I am often working in isolation. CWM evaluation form will need to be completed by the end of March and so a decision will be made by then. I value your prayers and comments in this next month.
