The CF support team will be running 8 online sessions for church leaders, parents and youth and children workers to help nurture faith in the next generation. The course was developed by Care for the Family. The aim of the course is to take a fresh look at what may cause young people to turn away from the church and how we can play our part in reversing this trend. You could also organise a similar session in your church. To get the free course material from Care for the Family click on the link

Around our churches

BOW CC.

We braved the weather on halloween evening with a table outside our church armed with flasks of hot chocolate and goodie bags with a Christian message . We hand out about 50 bags.

Remembrance day- Eccles CC

Eccles Congregational Church is blessed to have the 55th. Manchester

Boys Brigade & Girls Association affiliated to our church. Our act of remembrance centred on a Drumhead service, and was very moving. The maturity and reverence displayed by the brigade was well beyond their years - and a testimony to the disciplined training of their leaders.

Remembrance day at Newport

The children made the poppies on the windowsill & the thank you letters with the help of a few parents

NORTH NIBLEY CC /SOUTHAM

My thanks to both these Congregational Churches who welcomed me in Oct . It was encouraging and felt supportive. Both occasions were very different, one a more traditional service and one café Church style.

CF- SCOTLAND

It has been cold for me. I spent 3 days in Edinburgh with a friend, sightseeing and staying in a hostel dorm. I then spoke at the Scottish Assembly in Eyemouth. Great to meet and be encouraged by some growth in the Churches.

LONDON CHURCHES

Great to be back in London with a warm welcome and cake and food wherever I went. East Ham on Tuesday, Anchor Wandsworth on Wednesday, and Latimer Stepney Green on Thursday I did talks or services but also had the chance to visit a number of people at home, it was good to see Myrtle, now 100, whilst she was in Hospital. I had the chance to catch up with my Niece Liz and Sean when staying with them in Balham

NEWARK CC

I enjoyed my time up in Newark Congregational Church. The bacon rolls were great for their café Church. I met with two folks who are joining me in Grenada for two weeks in Jan/Feb 24. I had not realised that Newark was so big, worth a visit!
