

Happy New Year!

I hope that 2017 is full of God's blessing and opens up lots of opportunities to serve Him.

I write to encourage you and tell you about the International Congregational Fellowship (ICF) conference in Cape Town, South Africa from 6th – 11th July 2017.

It is an amazing opportunity to meet with other Congregational ministers and church members from around the world, worship and learn together and enjoy the South African culture and even visit some of the big tourist attractions (Table Mountain and Robben Island).

The programme includes speakers from the local university and John de Gruchy who is an Anti-Apartheid leader, Karl Barth Prize award recipient, former Robert Selby Taylor Professor of Christian Studies at University of Cape Town, and an Extraordinary Professor at the University of Stellenbosch.

The full conference cost is £250 plus flights and accommodation. There may be a small grant available through the Learning and Development budget to help with the conference cost however there are a range of accommodation options available to suit all budgets. The flights and accommodation can be booked with Key travel through their Indigo Team on 0207 843 2571 or email indigo@keytravel.com. The team manager is Holly Talbot. They have all the conference details and all the information about accommodation that has been given to me. They will be happy to help you arrange flights and accommodation if you want them to.

I attach the conference booking form which needs to be returned to me by 31st March 2017 at the Nottingham offices.

I would love you to join me for this conference and share in the work of ICF.

If you have any questions or queries please let me know

God bless

Yvonne
