

DAVID GOODBOURN
LECTURE 2024

“ALL BECAUSE OF RELIGION!”
RELIGION, VIOLENCE AND THE IMPERATIVE OF TRANSFIGURATION

1 MAY 2024
7.30PM - 9.00PM

This lecture will focus on an important issue that we face in our world today, namely the rising tide of violence and its association with religion. This has been an issue that has been with us for some time and has been posed by appalling acts of terrorism and nationalisms that draw inspiration from religious identity.

Join Dr Clare Amos to explore how we are to make sense of this complex relationship between religion and violence.

CANON DR CLARE AMOS

Until her retirement in 2018, Canon Dr Clare Amos was head of the World Council of Churches office for Interreligious Dialogue and Cooperation.

Clare is a biblical scholar by background with a particular interest in the interface between interreligious concerns and biblical studies, stemming partly from the years she spent living in Jerusalem and then Beirut.
