

Pioneering & Fresh Expressions of Church

Likewise Day

Profiles of Presenters

Andrea Campanale

Andrea has been pioneering amongst spiritual seekers for 15 years, having started doing outreach at Kingston Green Fair. Firstly, Sacred Space Kingston was created as a missional project and it became a Fresh Expression of Church in 2012. Andrea is a commissioned Lay Pioneer in Southwark Diocese and a regular at the Surrey Steam Punk Convivial. She runs the Pioneer Ministry Certificate for Cliff College and is employed by CMS to teach, support and network pioneers through an expanding number of hubs and the Starfish Network.

Walter Riggans

Walter is the Learning & Development Manager for the Congregational Federation and the Director of Studies for the Congregational Institute for Practical Theology. He has been leading and teaching in Biblical, theological and missiological courses for many years, and in many countries. His PhD was in the area of cross-cultural religious identity.

Mark Taylor

Mark is one of the Deacons and one half of the Joint Ministerial Team at London Road Congregational Church in Newark. He is also the facilitator of a Pub Theology group which meets regularly in Newark. He has a BA (Hons) in Practical Theology, achieved with Distinction, and he is committed to helping Congregational (and other) churches to become effectively involved in pioneering initiatives.